All properties will be allocated following regulatory guidelines for each state and territory.

Allocations

Assessing applications

Applications for affordable housing are assessed in date order and eligibility. All eligibility and income requirements must be met and verified for an application to be approved.

An approved application does not mean an offer of housing will be made.

Waitlisted applicants

Where multiple properties are on offer, approved applicants may be waitlisted for offers, for example, in a complex of units where multiple units become available.

Offers

Offers will be made to eligible applicants in order of date of application received.

Only one offer will be made to approved applicants. If an offer is declined, the tenancy will be offered to the next eligible applicants.

Complaints and Appeals

If a tenant is not satisfied with a service provided by Amélie Housing or does not agree with its decision, they can ask for a formal review. To do this, the tenant can complete a review of the decision form.

Details on how to make a complaint, provide feedback or lodge an appeal are found in Amélie Housing Complaints and Appeals policy.
